

O My God, Withhold Your Anger (Psalm 38)

Stephen Pearson

Am  $\text{♩} = 170$  Dm G7

1. O my God, with - hold Your an - ger. See the ar - rows
 2. My wounds fes - ter and are loath - some. I am bowed and
 3. All my long - ings are be - fore You, all my sigh - ing
 4. I am now both deaf and mute: a - gainst my foes I
 5. As my pain is ere be - fore me, I con - fess my

ritard. Am Em  $\text{♩} = 130$   $\text{♩} = 170$  Am Dm G pier - cing me! In Your wrath, my bo - dy fails. My guilt is a - go - brought down low. I am filled with pain and mourn - ing: an - guish is my in Your sight. My heart pounds, my strength it fails, my eyes have lost their can't re - ply. Yet I know that You will an - swer: on You I re - sins to You. Ma - ny those who hate me, Lord, and mock the good I

C Am Em F Dm ritard.

- ny. soul! O my God, do not for - sake me, be not far from light!
 - ly!
 do!

♩=130 G                      ♩=170 Am                      Em7                      F                      Dm7

me.                      Come                      quick - ly,                      O my                      God, and help me.                      Lord, my Sav - ior

1.2.3.4.                      Bb                      G                      5.                      C be!                      be!

ritard.                      ♩=120                      ♩=170                      ritard.                      ♩=130