

The Lord Is My Refuge (Psalm 71/31)

Stephen Pearson

$\text{♩} = 110$

C Am Em F C

1. The Lord is my re - fuge, the rock of my soul — my for - tress, de -
 2. You let me see trou-ble, the ev - il of men. Yet from sor - row's

Em F G Am Em F

- li - ver-er to whom I - go. In the times of my trou-ble, since the time of my depth, You lift me a - gain. You bring hope, You bring com-fort, a peace that is

Em Dm Dm7 G Refrain C

youth: my re - li - ance is God, my sal - va - tion in Truth. I will praise You, I will true. In my joy, O my Lord, hear me sing un - to You.

Am F G C Em F

praise You, O God of my birth. I will praise You, I will praise You to the ends of the earth. I will tell of Your love; I will tell of Your deeds. Migh-ty God, my sus-

E Am Em F Em Dm

Dm7 ^{1.}Dbmaj7 G ^{2.}G C

- tain-er, who meets all my needs. (You) meets all my needs.