

How Lovely is Your Dwelling Place (Psalm 84)

Stephen Pearson

♩ = 100

1. How love-ly is Your dwel-ling place, O Lord God, my King. My
 2. Ev-en as the spar-row finds a home, and the swal-low finds a nest — so my heart and flesh cry for Your grace; my soul faints with yearn-ing. Blessed are place is near my God and King: at Your al - tar will I rest. Hear my those who dwell in Your house, O God, and whose strength is in their Lord! They have set their hearts on the prayer, O Lord, look up - on my soul, and know that I am true. For You, my God, are my pil - grim-age; set their path up - on Your Word. (Ev-en) sun and shield: Blessed are those who trust in You!