

How Lovely is Your Dwelling Place (Psalm 84)

Stephen Pearson

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. How love-ly is Your dwel-ling place, O Lord God, my King. My
2. Ev-en as the spar-row finds a home, and the swal-low finds a nest — so my heart and flesh cry out for Your grace; my soul faints in its yearn-ing. Bles-sed place is near my God and King: at Your al-tar will I rest. Hear my

Chords: G, Am, C, D, G

Chords: Am, C, D, G

those who dwell in Your house, O God, and whose strength is in their Lord! They have prayer, O Lord, look up - on my soul, and know that I am true. For

Chords: Em, G, C, Em, D set their hearts on the pil-grim-age; set their path up - on Your Word. (Ev-en)

You, my God, are my sun and shield: Blessed are those who trust in

Chords: G, Am, C, D, 1. G

2.
G

You!